FIRST OF SIX large buildings planned for the General Baptist church camp—the kitchen-dining room building—is now under construction on the 8-acre camp site near Rudement. Bill Anthony, carpenter; Rev. George Dougherty, secretary and J. W. Roberts, president, of the camp committee are shown on the roof.

In Rudement Area

Work Started on First Building of General Baptist Church Camp

On an 8-acre tract in the Rudement community work has been started on the construction of a large kitchen-dining room building, first of several buildings that will be a church camp upon completion.

The camp, to be known as Camp Oxford, is a project of the 25 General Baptist churches in the Ohio Association of General Baptist churches.

Rev. George Dougherty, pastor of the General Baptist church at Stonefort and secretary of the camp committee, states plans called for a camp this summer, but the continued rains this spring held up work. Plans definitely include a camp for the summer of 1958.

The building now under construction, to house the kitchen and dining room, is 34 feet by 60 feet and about 220 can be seated at one time. Meals will be served cafeteria style, with two serving lines in operation.

Building plans also include a large tabernacle, 60 feet by 90 feet; four dormitories, each 20 feet by 60 feet and two bath houses.

Down the center of the 8-acre tract is a row of trees and plans are to have all buildings on the east side, with the buildings facing west. On the west side of the trees will be the recreation area.

The tabernacle will be constructed just south of the dining hall, and at the extreme south side will be the two dormitories and bath house for the girls. The boys' dorms and bath house will be at the extreme north side of the area.

The bath house in the boys' area has been completed and work will start on the other soon. If the dorms are not completed in time for next year's camp, the people will be housed in tents.

The camp has been named Camp Oxford, as a memorial to the late Brother M. F. Oxford of Cave-in-Rock, long time worker in the General Baptist church work.

Members of the building committee are J. W. Roberts, president; Rev. George Dougherty, secretary; Rev. Arthur Austin, Rev. Nomus Summers and Rev. James H. Rose. The Ohio Association of General Baptist churches includes churches, for the most part, in Saline, Pope, Hardin and Williamson counties.

Camp Oxford is being constructed along the general plans of a long-established General Baptist church camp near Wayne City. This camp has proved to meet the needs of a church camp and was closely studied by the local building committee in making their plans.

The association will have invested approximately $60,000 in the camp program when all buildings are completed, it is estimated. However, the actual worth will be considerably more as only two full time workers are employed. Much of the construction work is by volunteer labor.

Rites at Eldorado At 4 p. m. Today For H. A. Bramlet Sr.

Harry A. Bramlet Sr., 81, 1410 Jackson street, Eldorado, died at his residence at 4:43 p. m. Saturday. He was a retired salesman and farmer and is survived by his wife, Emma, and the following children: Harry A. Bramlet Jr., Eldorado; Wendell Bramlet, Harrisburg; Mrs. Roy Ramsey, Carbondale; Mrs. Lena Schumacher, Harrisburg; Mrs. John Falk, Eldorado; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

He was a member of the Memorial Union Grove Baptist church. The body will lie in state at the Martin funeral home in Eldorado and the funeral will be held in the chapel, there, at 4 p. m. today.

Rev. C. C. Lowe of Bridgeport will officiate and burial will be in the Wolf Creek cemetery.

George Parks of Carrier Mills came in one day last week with a two-colored cornstalk that was growing alone in his field of green corn.

The blades looked sorta like an awning color, in green and yellow. They were fully developed and the yellow definitely was not from a withering stalk.

Mr. Parks said he believed some mineral or mineral deficiency in the soil caused the unusual two-tone job but couldn't figure out why it affected just one stalk in all the field.

Charge Two With Issuing Fraudulent Checks

Informations charging two men with issuing fraudulent checks in Harrisburg were on file in county court today.

Bill G. Dollis is charged with issuing a check for $106 to the Parris Gulf station, and C. R. White is charged with issuing a check for $45 to Harold James.

In county court Saturday two Eldorado young men, Carl Homer Barnes and James Frederick Chapman, were arraigned on petit larceny charges involving the theft of 1,040 pounds of steel track material from the Louisville and Nashville railroad at Eldorado.

They pleaded guilty to the charges, after which County Judge Traflet Dennis sentenced both of them to a year on the state farm at Vandalia, then suspended sentence and placed each on probation for one year.

Independence Unit School Vote on Aug. 24

Patrons of Independence Community Consolidated Grade School District No. 53 will go to the polls Saturday, Aug. 24, and vote on two propositions — to purchase a school site and to build and equip a school house on the site.

A similar election was held Saturday, July 20, and the voters approved the propositions by a decisive margin, 192 for and 31 against.

However, that election has been voided due to new territory being added to the district and it was declared necessary to vote again.

When the district was being organized more than a year ago patrons of Rose district in Pope county petitioned to join the consolidated district, but the petition to withdraw from Pope county schools was denied by the Pope County Board of School Trustees.

Only recently, during the time plans were being made for the election held July 20, the decision of the Pope county trustees was reversed by Circuit Judge C. Ross Reynolds.

It is said the notice calling the election and the Circuit Court decision came in such a way that the patrons of Rose district didn't have the required number of days notice of the election.

The consolidated district now is composed of nine Saline and one Pope county districts—South Walnut Grove, North Walnut Grove, Pierson, Rudement, Spring Valley, Taylor, Winkelman, Duncan and Mitchellville in Saline and Rose in Pope county.

The proposed site of the new school building is near the location of the present Mitchellville school. The building, modern in every way, will include six or eight classrooms and an all purpose room to be used for a cafeteria, vocational education and community gathering place.

The election Saturday, Aug. 24, will be held in the Mitchellville school building, with the polls open from noon to 7 p. m.

Alpine Rescuers Spot Second Stranded Climber

Seen Hanging Head Down on Mountain Wall

Two Germans Still Missing are Also Believed Dead

BULLETIN

GRINDELWALD, Switzerland — Alpine rescue crews gave up hope tonight for three members of a four-man mountain climbing party stranded for nearly a week on Mt. Eiger.

GRINDELWALD, Switzerland — Alpine rescuers today spotted the second of four stranded mountain climbers entangled in his ropes and hanging head down on the sheer, icy north wall of 13,038 foot Mt. Eiger.

"It appears that he died during the night," the rescue teams from five countries reported. "The storm must have been too much for his exhausted body."

The man spotted today was Stefano Longhi, a 44-year-old Italian, the second of the four climbers accounted for. One man was hauled to safety Sunday in a daring rescue. Two others were missing and feared dead.

Longhi had been clinging precariously to a tiny ledge, 1,200 feet below the summit of the mountain, dangling from two ropes. He was reported injured earlier and the latest storm appeared to be too much for him.

Fear Two Germans Dead

The 60-man rescue team pulled one man to safety Sunday in a dramatic hours-long pickaback haul before a raging snowstorm halted attempts to reach Longhi and two missing Germans.

The two Germans were feared to have plunged to their deaths in one of the many blizzards that have stung the frozen mountain face since the party of four set out a week ago for one of the most difficult climbs in the Swiss Alps.

German Alpinist Alfred Hellpart made a daring descent from the top of the mountain Sunday and rescued Claudio Corti, 29, of Lecco, Italy. Corti was so weak Hellpart had to lash him to his back.

But another blizzard set in during the afternoon and it was impossible to make another descent after Longhi, the oldest of the four stranded men.

The blizzard was so severe a rescue column taking Corti to safety had to spend the night at the Eiger glacier station before resuming the descent to the Inter-laken hospital. Corti was suffering from exhaustion and head and hand injuries.

'Gus' Mathieu Dies Suddenly At Eldorado

August J. "Gus" Mathieu, 60, 1208 State street, Eldorado, died at 5 p. m. Sunday. He was being taken to the Ferrell hospital, following what was believed to be a fainting spell, and was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital. He was a retired miner and an outstanding civic leader.

He is survived by his wife, Effie May; his sons, Edward Mathieu of Cypress, Calif., Joseph Mathieu, with the U. S. Army in Japan, Charles Mathieu of Indianapolis, Ind., and his daughters, Mrs. Ruth Brooks, Evansville, Ind., Mrs. Jewel Wiseman, Raleigh, Mrs. Wilma Shelton, Chicago, Mrs. Madeline Arnold, Belleville, and Mrs. June Bean, Evansville, Ind. There are 22 grand children surviving.

The body will lie in state at the Martin funeral home in Eldorado and funeral plans are awaiting the arrival of some of the children.

Wiley Goforth, 70, Dies at Equality

The funeral was held at the Equality Methodist church at 3:30 p. m. today. Rev. Don Rister and Rev. Frank Pierce officiated and burial was in the New Zion cemetery near Ridgway.

It visited Shawneetown after leaving Harrisburg and spent Sunday visiting other spots in southern Illinois and Indiana. (Daily Register Staff Photo)

Passengers British War Vets, Families En Route Home from Reunion in Britain

QUEBEC CITY — A happy post-war reunion with relatives in Canadian aviation history and one of the world's worst.

The Maritimes Central Airways DC4, chartered by the Imperial Division of the Canadian Legion in Toronto, burst into flames on impact and dug a deep crater in the marshland. Bodies of the 73 passengers and six crewmembers were torn limb from limb in the ensuing blast. Identification was expected to be almost impossible.

Last rites were conducted at the scene of the tragedy by Rev. Alexandre DeBlois, rector of the Parish of Ste. Croix.

The passengers were British war veterans or members of the families who had settled in Canada after World War II. They had chartered the plane to visit their former homes in the United Kingdom.

Weather Not Certain

The doomed airliner's pilot gave no indication that it was in trouble. Last radio contact was made over Quebec City when its captain, Norman Ramsay, 34, of Montreal, reported that everything was normal and the weather clear. Previously the weather had reported scattered thunderstorms in the area.

Several persons saw the aircraft as it flew overhead. They said it was "limping" and "making a horrible noise." On impact it exploded, "making a noise like an earthquake or thunder clap." Ramsay was suspended for six months when he crash landed a Trans-Canada Airlines Super Constellation near Brampton, Ont., on Dec. 17, 1954. A board of inquiry charged him with "lack of alertness," although the pilots' Assn. protested he had suffered from fatigue. He had been flying for MCA since late 1955 after resigning from TCA.

Ocean Crossing Uneventful

The plane had left London Saturday night, where the veterans had attended veterans' ceremonies. After an uneventful crossing of the Atlantic, it stopped at Keflavik, Iceland, for fuel.

It crashed 175 miles west of Montreal where it was to have refueled before continuing on to Toronto.

Begin Testing of Dial Phone Sets

Another phase in the General Telephone company's dial telephone installation program was started today with the testing of dial sets in the urban area.

Three operators have been placed on testing duty, and they will dial each number to be sure the number rings under the dial setup, and then request the person answering to call the operator back, thus making sure that connections have been established to and from the exchange. The testing started this morning and will continue until all phones in the urban area have been tested, according to General Telephone manager M. H. Lynch.

Lynch also called the public's attention to the dial telephone demonstration unit which is on display in the new offices of the company on West Church street, showing how communication works from your telephone through the exchange to the telephone of the person you are calling, and he invited the public to inspect the display.

Loose Grip on Life

Not too long ago some reporter in a big city began tabulating traffic violations he observed in his regular driving rounds. He collected a fantastic list in a short time.

Anyone can do the same, if he likes, when he's spinning along the open highway. Try it some day.

If you do, the chances are that the most noticeable flaw in driving technique will not be an offense punishable under the law but a mere act of carelessness. It most likely will be the failure of most motorists to grip the steering wheel properly.

In handling a modern automobile with its tremendous power and potential speed, constant control is clearly a vital key to safety. You must be able to manage the car in any developing road situation, no matter how critical.

This being so, it is absolutely astounding to see how many drivers hold the wheel casually with one hand—or even a few fingers—while the other is draped out the window in some foolish attitude of relaxation suitable to a living room couch but not a speeding car.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
State Department Stenog Lets
Cat Out Of Bag Re Politics
And Ambassadors; Senators Find Every Ambassador Is Cleared With GOP National Committee; Long List Of Political Contributions From Ike's Ambassadors.

WASHINGTON. — Despite President Eisenhower's angry denial that he ever appointed an ambassador because of political contributions, the Senate Foreign Relations committee has discovered quite by accident that the State Department clears every diplomatic appointment with the Republican National committee.

A State Department stenographer made a slip and sent the wrong letters to Foreign Relations Chairman Theodore Green (D. R.
I.). The letters were supposed to have been sent to the ranking Republican, Sen. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin. Instead, Democratic Senator Green was assured on two occasions that ambassador-nominees had been cleared with the Republican National committee.

Green has now demanded to know whether the State Department or the Republican National committee is running our diplomatic service.

The Foreign Relations committee is also tracing the political contributions of key ambassadors and finds overwhelming evidence that Ike just didn't know what he was talking about or else wasn't telling the truth when he said campaign contributions didn't influence diplomatic appointments.
The committee's findings indicate that diplomatic posts are put on the auction block and almost sold for cash on the barrelhead to campaign contributors.

ROLL CALL OF MONEY- RAISERS

The chief money-raiser for last year's campaign, GOP National Treasurer J. Clifford Folger, was appointed ambassador to Belgium.
He and his wife not only raised money, but gave $10,500 out of their own pockets. Aside from his money-raising ability, Folger has no other known qualifications for handling our complicated foreign affairs.

Total contributions of $8,500 have been traced to James David Zellerbach's immediate family.
He's the California paperbox king who was named ambassador to Italy, a juicy diplomatic plum.

Ike's new ambassador to France, Amory Houghton, coughed up $6,000 and his son gave another $2,500. John Hay Whitney, ambassador to Britain, has long been a big Republican contributor.
Ten contributions have been traced to him and his wife, totaling $30,000. Other family members also donated to the 1956 campaign.

The former ambassador to Denmark, Robert T. Coe, got his job after contributing to the Eisenhower campaign in 1952. He reportedly was asked for a more substantial donation in 1956. The records show his family scraped up $6,190.

"It was more than that. I doubled my 1952 contribution," Coe told this column by long-distance phone from his home in Cody, Wyo. But apparently it wasn't enough; he was kicked out as ambassador.

Coe admitted he was surprised at his replacement, but denied it had anything to do with his campaign offering.

"Don't you get me in trouble in Washington," he said.

SOME MONEY IS HARD TO TRACE

It's no secret that only a percentage of the actual campaign contributions are officially recorded. The balance is often passed under the table. All Ike's non-career ambassadors are known to have donated to the political pot.

However, it's difficult to trace the individual contributions. For example, Jefferson Patterson, ambassador to Uruguay, gave $4,000 to the Eisenhower campaign in Dayton, Ohio. The records also show another $20,000 contributed by Jefferson Patterson and his wife in Washington.

Robert Thayer, ambassador to Rumania, is listed as donating $1,000 via the American embassy in Vienna, Austria. Two contributions of $1,000 and $2,000, respectively, have been traced to Mrs. Thayer in Vienna. Still another $2,000 shows up in the record, contributed by Mrs. Thayer in Washington.

The evidence clearly shows that the political spoils system is followed in handing out diplomatic posts. This may explain why the United States has suffered so many diplomatic setbacks.

Note—The man who stirred up the controversy over political ambassadors, Maxwell Gluck, admitted contributing $36,000 to two Eisenhower campaigns. He was a close friend and associate of Ben Javits, attorney brother of Sen.
Jack Javits of New York. Senator
Javits didn't want to appoint Gluck from New York, so arranged with his Republican Senate friends from Kentucky to appoint him from that state, because Gluck kept a racing stable in Kentucky.

THE STORY: Pike Ambrose, a 17-year-old boy who works in a livery stable, is the only person in Blue Springs who wants to help Federal Marshal Harney Blanchard get a prisoner back. Pete Dorsey, the prisoner, was taken from a train by a mob. Pike believes the Clement brothers, Dan and Eric, led the kidnapers.

Then it was like a dam went out. My words busted through and ran over each other. "They want to even it up for Barney Jethroe, on account of what happened in the basin. Barney got killed and they say Pete did it. But it's no law case so they got to handle it."

"Dorsey told me. He was afraid to come through this town. Thought something might happen. But he wouldn't say who wanted him."

"I don't know for sure that it's Clements. That's what everybody thinks. It makes sense. The Clements said Pete got Barney killed and they didn't like Pete anyway, on account of the way he hunted buffaloes."

"And they thought this was their last chance to get him. How did you find out?"

"Some of their hunters have families in town. It's a talky town."

"Why did McNabb quit?"

"He wanted to stop it last night. Peterson and other businessmen wouldn't back him. He got mad and quit."

"Why wouldn't Peterson help?"

"I pointed south along the tracks to the loading pens that stretched through town and out onto the prairie. Those pens used to be full of cattle. This was going to be cattle country. Then come two years' drought and one year of Texas fever and the buyers quit coming from Chicago. Town like to die in its tracks."

Blanchard nodded. "What's that got to do with this trouble?"

"They're afraid it'll happen again, Peterson and all the rest. Buffalo hides keep this town going. The Clements and their boys do most of the hunting. You can't hunt in Buffalo Basin south of town if the Clements don't want you to."

"People afraid the Clements will go away if they're crossed? The country's full of hide hunters."

"But not like them. The way the Clements hunt, without running the herds and without wasting, there'll be buffaloes out in the basin for a long time."

"Now, Pike, what about Cole Jethroe?"

"They say it has to wait until he gets here."

"Is he telling the Clements what to do?"

"I don't think that. Nobody does that."

Blanchard nodded. "Where's Cole coming from?"

"Chicago. He went back East a couple years ago. Before Barney was killed."

"Suppose you're wrong. Suppose they don't plan to wait for Cole."

I shrugged. "Then it's mighty late for Dorsey right now."

"Yeah. If you're wrong, Dorsey's dead and I'm in bad trouble."

I tried to grin. "Yeah. Me, too."

Blanchard's eyes picked me over. Then, fast, a smile came on his face. It was a good thing to see. He stuck out his hand and I took it.

"Pike, you seem to know me. Call me Harney."

"Sure," I said, grinning. I'd call him Harney so's everybody in town could hear.

Bill Conliffe came then, carrying a big ring with keys on it, but he didn't say anything or even nod. He went into the depot.

I said, "You could get Bill to send a message now."

Blanchard turned, slow. "Suppose I could?"

"I figured you wanted to You got to, don't you?"

Blanchard stood and stretched "Not if I get him back."

Blanchard pointed to a white tail of smoke out on the prairie. The train was going to be on time. He took out his gun and opened the gate and twirled the cylinder fast. I couldn't take my eyes away from his long fingers and the way they worked on the gun. He poked it back in the holster and the coat covered it.

"Pike, what would happen if a dozen deputy marshals rode in here with orders to clean out the town and find Dorsey?"

"I thought about that. I was pretty sure what would happen. They'd finish Dorsey fast. They don't mean to lose him now."

Blanchard nodded. "Suppose some strangers drifted in, minding their own business."

"No such thing as a stranger in Blue Springs. Not after a couple of hours."

"Maybe so. Then it's just the two of us."

The train hit the Big Blue trestle and rumbled over, loud and hollow. The engine pumped up to us, slow, and the engineer grinned down at me and Blanchard. After the tender came two passenger cars and we could see all the folks looking out. The train halted looking to a stop with the first passenger car right in front of us. A mail sack flew out from the back car and hit on the depot platform and slid until it hit the closed freight door.

Blanchard said, "You'd know Jethroe?"

"Sure."

A man got off the back car and talked to the conductor. I didn't know him but he wasn't Cole. Another man got off. I recognized Chris Eckhardt, one of the Clements' skinner. The train jerked hard, twice, and then commenced to move out.

ASSESSMENT LIST

Herewith is a list of personal property assessments as made by the township assessor for Harrisburg township inside the City of Harrisburg and returned to MAYNARD CANNON, County Treasurer and Supervisor of Assessments of Saline County, Illinois.

The assessed values shown are subject to revision by the Saline County Board of Review and to equalization by the State Department of Revenue. Under Provisions of Section 146 of the Illinois Revenue Act of 1939 as amended in 1945, the Department of Revenue is required to determine the percentage relationship within each county of assessed value and the estimated full, fair cash value. Upon the basis of such data, the Department is required to raise or lower the total locally assessed values so that all such property will be assessed at its full, fair cash value.

These equalized values then become the base for tax extension for 1957 taxes, payable in 1958, and indicate the full, fair cash value of the properties assessed, based on the assessed values as made by the local assessment officials.

This publication, which is made in accordance with section 103 of the Revenue Act, serves as public notice to the taxpayers of the County of assessed values fixed upon their property by the township assessors.

Rebel Grenades In Oman Said To Be American

BAHREIN, Persian Gulf — British headquarters rushed samples of rebel grenades and land mines to London today for identification but refused comment on frontline reports the arms captured in Nizwa were American-made. A pooled dispatch from New York Times correspondent Sam Pope Brewer, covering the Nizwa front for the combined American press, radioed that the grenades he saw appeared to be American style and that this strengthened belief Saudi Arabia was arming the rebels.

Saudi Arabia, which itself disputes some of the Oman territory, receives American aid.

In Cairo, meanwhile, the Arab League decided today to ask the United Nations Security Council to take up the question of the "Oman War."

The British denied any "aggression" in the crucial state of Oman, and said it only answered a plea for aid by the Sultan in compliance with its treaty obligations.

A Foreign Office spokesman in London said "it is difficult to see how the Oman problem could be referred to the Security Council, or on what grounds. It is a matter of internal jurisdiction of the Sultan of Muscat and Oman."

U. S. Population 171,200,000

WASHINGTON — The nation's population totaled 171,200,000 last July 1, the Census Bureau estimated today.

The figure was three million higher than the population estimate for the same date a year ago, the bureau said, and about 20 million higher than the 1950 census total.

The bureau said the current population is more than double the 1900 total of almost 77 million.

Witness Says Hoffa Was Interested In Getting Dio Into Teamsters

WASHINGTON (AP) — A former top official of the AFL United Automobile Workers told the Senate Rackets Committee today that James R. Hoffa, crown prince of the powerful Teamsters Union, "was interested" in bringing New York hoodlum Johnny Dio into the Teamsters' organization.

Anthony Doria, who resigned as secretary of the UAW, now known as the Allied Industrial Workers of America, told of a meeting in New York City at which Hoffa sought to bring Dio and a Diomandized local union organizing taxicab drivers into the Teamsters.

The committee has charged that Hoffa, midwestern vice president of the Teamsters and unopposed candidate to succeed Dave Beck in the presidency, worked with Dio and underworld elements in an attempt to get a stranglehold on the New York labor movement.

Doria said he attended the meeting at New York City in 1953 soon after George Meany of the AFL ordered the UAW-AFL to get Dio out of the taxicab organizational drive.

Present at the meeting, besides Doria, was Hoffa and Thomas Hickley, a New York City Teamster official.

Robert F. Kennedy, chief counsel of the committee, asked whether Hoffa had made a "strong statement" regarding taking Dio and the taxicab drive into the Teamsters.

Doria said he did not recall any particular statement but that Hoffa "certainly was interested."

The witness pictured Dio, with whom he acknowledged a friendship, as the victim of a cruel society, barred from becoming a "respected labor leader" because of a youthful indiscretion.

"If society had treated Johnny Dio right," Dio told the committee, "rather than convict and condemn him at every move, he would have been an outstanding labor leader."

Junior Winners Named in State Fair Shorthorn Division

SPRINGFIELD — Richard Innes, 14, Galesburg, won blue ribbons in the junior show and Land of Lincoln competition at the State Fair today in the Shorthorn breeding beef division.

Innes' champion cow was named "Diamond Princess."

Colleen Bivin, 12, Waverly, showed the reserve grandchampion Shorthorn female in the junior show.

Bob Hatch, 15, Urbana, had the grand champion Polled Shorthorn cow in the junior show.

Reserve grand champion in the Polled Shorthorn breed was shown by Kay Ann Chaney, 12, of Humboldt in Cokes County.

Gov. Stratton spent his first full day at the fair as livestock judging and a rich harness race program topped the program for "Farmer's and Editor's Day."

Rayburn Rules Out Action on Natural Gas Bill

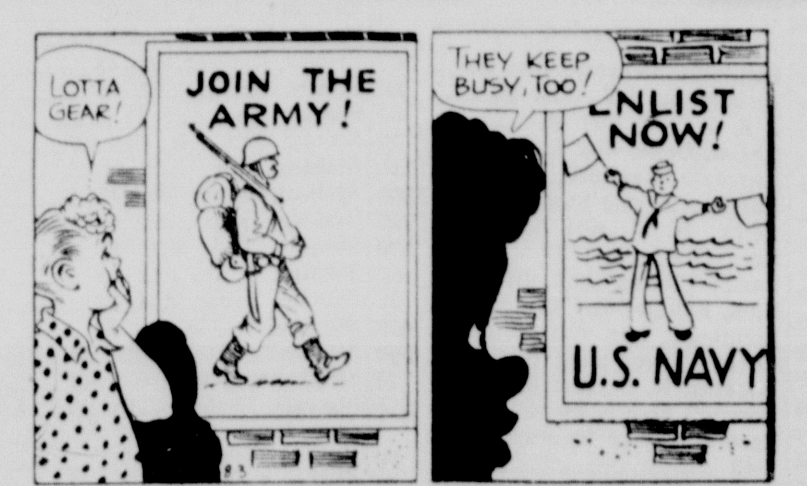

WASHINGTON — Speaker Sam Rayburn today ruled out any House action this year on a controversial bill to relax federal controls over producer prices for natural gas.

Rayburn, an advocate of the legislation, said it would have a "much better chance" of House approval next year—even if 1958 is an election year—than it would this late in 1957 session.

The speaker said that Congress has been in session now for more than seven months and "the nerves" of members are "a little unstrung." It was no time, he said, to take up the highly controversial natural gas bill.

His plans, he said, were to let the House act only on the civil rights bill and the foreign aid program.

To Release First Batch of Asiatic Flu Vaccine

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney said today 500,000 shots of Asiatic flu vaccine will be made available to the public today or Tuesday.

He told the United Press a large amount of the first big batch released will be shipped to the West Coast where the Oriental virus first cropped up in the United States after spreading through the Far East. Some also will be sent to the East Coast which also has reported outbreaks of the new-type flu.

Burney said the vaccine will be released by the National Drug Co., a Pennsylvania firm, and will be made available to general practitioners—in other words family doctors.

United Press White House reporter Merriman Smith reported today that shots of the new vaccine have been available for weeks to key figures of the Eisenhower administration including cabinet members.

Employment at All-Time High, Gov't Reports

WASHINGTON (AP) — Total U. S. employment climbed to an all-time high of 67,200,000 last month, the government reported today.

The Commerce and Labor departments jointly announced a gain of 700,000 from the previous record number of job-holders, set in June.

They said the increase reflected "further hiring of young people in summer activities."

Unemployment dropped to three million—a decline of 300,000—as summer job-seekers found work or stopped looking.

All non-farm sectors of the economy except manufacturing showed increases in employment or held steady, the government said. Factory job totals fell a bit more than normally during the summer to increase in employment or held steady, the government said. Factory job totals fell a bit more than normally during the summer to 16,700,000.

There was a slight rise in the farm work force in contrast to its usual dip from the early summer peak.

The census put total non-agricultural employment at 59,400,000. This gain of half a million over the June figure indicated the further hiring of students.

Burglars Loot Home of Mother Of Slain Sisters

CHICAGO (AP) — Burglars looted the home of Mrs. Loretta Grimes whose two teen-aged daughters were murdered last winter and took $120 during her absence.

The looters left her home a shambles. Mrs. Grimes said. Dresser drawers were emptied, pictures torn from the walls, and carpeting ripped from the floors, she said.

The burglary occurred Sunday while Mrs. Grimes and her three children were attending the birthday party of a neighbor's son. Police said the burglars broke in through a kitchen window in an apparent attempt to steal $28,000 donated to Mrs. Grimes after the slaying of her daughters, Barbara, 15, and Patricia, 13. The money is in a family welfare fund.

At Expense of Army Wilson Restores Part of Funds Trimmed from Air Force Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force was reported today to have won a partial victory in the battle of the military budget at the expense of the Army.

A Pentagon spokesman disclosed that Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson has decided to restore to the junior service 25 per cent of his $1,250,000,000 cut in its funds.

The spokesman indicated that most of the 300 million dollars will go for weapons, particularly guided missiles. The greater part of the restored money was transferred out of the Army's account.

Wilson made the original slash to help keep military spending below 38 billion dollars in the current fiscal year which began July 1. He ordered a similar ceiling for next year.

While all the services grumbled about the cut, the Air Force particularly had set in motion a campaign to recover part of the reduction.

Wilson apparently gave consideration to a protest lodged by Air Force Secretary James H. Douglas last Spring. Douglas complained to Wilson about the cut before it even was ordered. The funds will boost the Air Force budget for the current 12 months to $17,900,000,000.

Wilson launched an all-out drive to cut defense spending rates by $2,200,000,000 after they rose to an annual rate of $40,200,000,000.

Wilson recently ordered a worldwide halt to civilian hiring by the armed services and cutback military petroleum purchases. The Navy since has decided to mothball 60 ships, including the battleship Iowa. Earlier the secretary called for a 100,000-man cut in military manpower by Jan. 1.

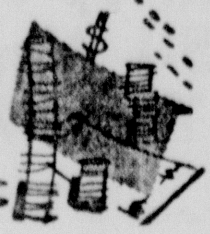

Wilson also has directed the secretaries of Army, Navy and Air Force to submit plans by the end of the month for trimming the total numbers of workers on their payrolls.

Braves Open Up 5½-Game Lead with 5-1 Win Over Cardinals; Yank Margin 5½

By United Press
A mere 22 victories in 44 games—a .500 pace—shapes up today as the magic pennant-clinching number for both the Milwaukee Braves and the New York Yankees.

The once-close National League scramble cracked wide open Sunday when the Braves whipped the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-1, for their seventh straight victory, their 12th in 13 games and their 21st in 26 games since July 15. The Yankees, meanwhile, downed the Baltimore Orioles, 7-2, and picked a half-game when the Chicago White Sox split with the Detroit Tigers.

Those successes enabled both front-runners to open up 5½-game leads with each having 4½ games remaining. A .500 pace would enable the Braves to finish with 90 victories and the Yankees with 94. To overtake the Braves the Cardinals would have to play .644 ball, the Brooklyn Dodgers .674, the Cincinnati Redlegs .682 and the Philadelphia Phillies .727. The White Sox would have to close at a .644 pace to wipe out a .500 Yankee closing pace.

Gene Conley, 6-1 since that key July 15 date, pitched a seven-hitter for his eighth win as the Braves gained the biggest NL lead of the season and the longest since they enjoyed the same margin on July 26, 1956.

Almost every statistic imaginable now supports the theory that the Braves will go on to their first flag since the shift to Milwaukee. Since July 15, they've played at an .808 clip compared to the Redlegs' .577, the Dodgers' .567, the Cardinals' .556 and the collapsing Phillies' .407. In addition, they now hold a season's edge over each of their rivals—7½ over the Cardinals, 9½ over the Dodgers, 11½ over the Redlegs and 10½ over the Phillies.

The Yankees, pulling out of a momentary slump, slammed out 14 hits behind the six-hit pitching of Johnny Kucks and Bob Grim and now show a steady 7-4 pace for August. The White Sox, who suffered an 8-5 loss before beating the Tigers, 11-2, show no signs of mounting a late drive off their 5-6 pace for this month.

Ed Mathews knocked in two runs with a single and his 22nd homer and Johnny Logan smashed a two-run single in a four-run third inning rally as the Braves beat Cardinal ace Sam Jones.

The Pirates dealt the Dodgers a staggering blow with a 4-3, 10-inning and 6-2 sweep, Bill Mazeroski singling home the winning run in the opener and Charlie (Whammy) Douglas scoring his first big league win in the nightcap. Paul Smith sent the first game into extra innings when he homered off relief ace Clem Labine with two out in the ninth.

Rookie Jack Sanford pitched a three-hitter for his 15th win and gave the Phillies a 2-0 decision over Johnny Antonelli after Curt Barclay's three-hitter won the opener for the Giants, 5-0. Cincinnati's scheduled doubleheader with Chicago was rained out.

Darrell Johnson, subbing for slump-ridden Yogi Berra, had three singles and Bill Skowron homered as the Yankees tagged Ken Lehman with his third defeat. Walt Dropo drove in four runs with a homer and a single to help the White Sox gain their split after Jim Bunning won his 14th game for the Tigers. Jim Wilson scattered nine hits for the White Sox in the second game.

Gene Stephens drove in the decisive run with an 11th-inning triple to give the Boston Red Sox a 4-3 victory over Washington after the Sox pounded out an 8-5 decision in the opener. Ted Williams had one hit in four trips.

The Kansas City Athletics got two-hit pitching from New Garver in their first game and walloped four homers in the nightcap to beat the Cleveland Indians, 7-0 and 9-8. Gus Zernial smashed two homers in the second game as the Indians dipped into sixth place.

U. S. Retains Wightman Cup

PITTSBURGH — The United States, buttressed by experience and the tradition of winning, retained a firm grasp on the Wightman Cup tennis trophy today but the youthful and will-ing British challengers warned they'll be waiting in 1958 with another year's competition to toughen their game.

America's women tennis titans rolled to a 6-1 victory at nearby Edgeworth Club Sunday and Saturday to keep the international challenge cup here for the 21st time in a row and the 25th time in the 29 years of competition.

Non-playing British captain Mrs. Mary Halford cautioned, however, "my girls are young. We hope to do better next year."

"It was a wonderful tournament," she said, "but I'm afraid now it is 28 years since we've held the cup. I only hope it won't be 80. We lost to a better team in fair and square play."

Leggy Althea Gibson, 29-year-old Wimbledon singles champion from Harlem, New York, notched two American triumphs in singles play and paired with her Wimbledon runner-up Darlene Hard to take a doubles match as the Americans moved swiftly over the British team of three teenagers and two in their mid-20s.

New Record for Ted Williams
BOSTON — Ted Williams was credited today with a new major league record for intentional bases on balls in one season. The Boston Red Sox slugger was walked intentionally once in each game of a doubleheader Sunday raising his total for the campaign to 27. The previous big league record of 26 was held by Duke Snider of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Junior Legion Blanks Norris City

The local Junior American Legion baseball team continued its winning ways Sunday afternoon when it shut out a good Norris City Junior Legion team, 6-0, on VFW Memorial field.

Hurley King and Ron Maynard combined to pitch a 5-hitter and as their teammates played perfectly behind them were never in serious trouble. Ray Hassett handled the two young pitchers.

Mickey Stone led Harrisburg at bat with two triples and a single. Ron Maynard had two hits and Wathen, Pickford, Pavelonis, and Clark also had hits. Pickford's hit was a long double to deep left field.

Next Wednesday night the Legion will play the Springerton Junior Legion team on VFW field.

VFW Wins Two Over Weekend

Locals Defeat Mt. Vernon, Ind., 4-3; Norris City, 14-7

The VFW baseball team won its 17th and 18th games of the season over the weekend with a 4-3 10-inning thriller over the Mt. Vernon Red Caps from Indiana and then soundly trounced the Norris City Merchants 14-7, Sunday afternoon on VFW field.

Bob Dallas and James Hay with two hits each led the locals' nine hit attack against the Red Caps Saturday night. Odie, Stout, Romonosky, Vick and Smith had the other hits. Ramon Tonazzi pitched a 7-hitter and allowed only one hit and no runs over the last five innings. The locals trailed 3-1 going into the 8th but tied it up in this inning and then almost won it in the 9th when with one away Ron Vick tripled and Hill went in to run for him and then the batter popped into a double play on the sudden death squeeze. In the 10th Tonazzi walked and Dick Odie lined a hit to right to drive in the winning run.

In the VFW-Norris City game Don Stout threw another 7-hitter and his teammates clubbed out 26 hits as VFW coasted to its 7th straight victory. Westphal, a former University of Illinois pitcher, started on the mound for Norris City but was knocked out in the third after the locals had clubbed out 10 hits and 7 runs. John Mills pitched the remainder of the game and scattered 16 hits and seven runs.

Bob Dallas led the hitters with 5 out of 6, Odie had 4 for 5, Romonosky and Smith had 3 hits and Sisk, Proctor, Hill, Hay and Stout had two hits. Bill McNew got a single hit. Barnum and Douglas had two hits each and Stevens, Absher, and Mills had single hits.

Next Sunday the VFW will travel to McLeansboro for an important league game.

"Martial Law" Means That

Troops are being used to maintain peace, not wage war; "military law" implies a state of siege.

Downstate Fisherman's Guide

General Slowdown in Area

By Pete Brown
(From reports by the Southern Illinois University Cooperative Fisheries Research Laboratory and the Illinois Department of Conservation.)

Fishing pressure throughout Southern Illinois was anything but heavy during the second week of August, a fact that may account for the lack of much inspirational news. A general slowdown in angling activity has been noticed almost everywhere.

Lake Murphysboro, now in excellent condition, has been the top producer. Fine bluegill and channel cat catches came in during the week, with practically all of the cats taken on a pole and line by bluegill fishermen.

Sam Vitale, of Dowell, caught four channel cats averaging two and one-half pounds along with a mess of large bluegill. J. Foster, of Herrin, boated 30 bluegill and a pair of two pound fiddlers, and F. Francois, Centralia, hooked five channel cats, the largest weighing three and one-half pounds. Belleville's George Schumaker brought in three channel cats at four pounds apiece.

Crappie and bluegill fishing remains good to excellent at Little Grassy, but bass action is slow. However, trolling with Bomber, Black Eel and Sonic produced noteworthy catches for Perry Joseph, St. Louis; Lewis Downard and Arthur Ragan, of West Frankfort; Marshall Ard and Pete Cox, of Cline, and S. G. Crenshaw, of Scott Air Force Base. Hank Holland, of Carbondale, hung a four pounder trolling with a Peco Perch. Cobden's Bob Kelley, dogging the surface with a Floating River Runt, caught a pair of two pounders and one four pound bass.

James Parks, of Raleigh, chalked up the season's neatest score at Harrisburg City lake, 60 bass in a week, ranging from one and one-half to three pounds. Trotline fishing for channel cats and bullheads has been quite good.

A few large bluegill are being taken along the rocks at Sahara Lake, but returns have been generally slow. The water is in top-notch condition.

Carbondale city reservoir is down and fairly clear but large mouth are laying low. Crappie fishing has been fair, but they're running small.

Fishermen have been scarce at Horseshoe Lake, where bluegill are still dormant. Six to eight inch crappie are still hitting as are one to one and one-half pound bass.

Fishing of all kinds has dropped into low gear at Pinckneyville City Lake.

Channel cat and bullhead results have been very good on the Big Muddy River. One party pulled in 41 channel cats on a trotline baited with catpaw worms. Their average weight was a little over one pound, with a few ranging up to five pounds.

Hubert Horstmann hooked a seven pound bass at Crab Orchard Lake, the only largemouth seen by docksiders during the week. The lake is in the best fishing condition of the year. So far, however, the fish haven't realized this

Dick Mayer with Two Birdies On Final Four Holes Wins World Open

CHICAGO — Dick Mayer played to win for only four holes, but two birdies on those, earned him Tam O'Shanter's World tournament and golf's biggest payday—$50,000 cash.

National Open Champion Mayer finished 72 holes in 279, nine under par, with a spurt which overcame a deficit of five strokes to Sam Snead and four to Al Balding before they began the last 18 holes.

"I was on the 15th tee when I figured out that I needed a couple of birdies and they could be beat," he said. "And with those last four holes, it's not probable that you're going to get the birdies."

But Mayer knocked his third shot four feet from the pin on 15 and dropped the putt for one and a birdie. On the 16th, though trapped on his drive, he blasted six feet from the pin for a par, and on the 17th, he fired his second shot out of the rough nine feet from the flag and sank the putt for the other birdie.

Makes Fast Finish

It was a fast finish by the only consistent player among the leaders on the final day of golf's richest tournament. Mayer, with 211 after 54 holes compared to 206 for Snead, 207 for Balding, 208 for Mike Souchak, 209 for Art Wall, and 210 for Gene Littler and Shelley Mayfield, never went over par on his final round.

Littler toured the course in 71, one under par, while Snead took a 74 and Balding a 73.

It was Mayer's second tournament win this year, the other in the National Open, and the prize lifted him well in front of the field in money winnings. Going into the World, he had been seventh in earnings with $15,833.

Balding and Snead tied for second, each winning $7,500 while George Bayer and Littler tied for fourth each getting $2,750.

Souchak Fifth For 2Gs

Fifth money of $2,000 went to Souchak, with 282, while Bob Rosburg, Dow Finsterwald and Wall shared seventh at 284, each winning $1,800. Others to break par were Arnold Palmer and Jerry Barber at 285, winning $1,500 each, Mayfield at 286 for $1,300, and Bob Harris, Marty Furgol, Ed Oliver, Earl Stewart and Bill Casper at 287 for $1,000 each.

The women pros' scrap for $6,000 top prize money ended in a tie between Patty Berg, Chicago, and Fay Crocker, Montevideo, Uruguay, each shooting a final-round 76 for 302, two under par. They will play off to determine the winner today with the loser of the extra round taking second money of $2,000.

Clifford Ann Creed, Opelousas, La., won the women's amateur title with 317, 10 strokes better than Lois Drakke, Chicago, and Don Cherry, Wichita Falls, Tex., took the men's amateur with 296.

Resemble Horses' Tails

Mares' tail clouds are spreading cirrus clouds which curl at the ends. The name is applied because of a fancied resemblance to horses' tails.

First "railroad tracks" in England, laid on wooden planks over rough earth runs and powered by horses, date from 1602.
